

Medicare Insurance Policy

Hill Country Bible Church Counseling Team has opted out of Medicare and only provides services to Medicare clients under a private agreement. Therefore, Medicare will not be billed for covered therapy services, and clients are fully responsible for the cost of psychotherapy services and may not submit practitioner's fees to CMS for reimbursement. Fees for licensed mental health professional services fees are not subject to Medicare limits, and MediGap will not pay for the services.